

THINKAGAIN

OG100 Semi-Annual Conference | 2023

CEOs today continue to face off against prolonged economic uncertainty, expanding geopolitical instability, lingering effects of the pandemic and an accelerating pace of technological change. All of which are exerting unprecedented pressures on organizational systems and people. The need for agility, adaptability and change is all the more pronounced. These shifts, while challenging, can be harbingers of opportunity, depending on how companies address them.

Join us at the OG100 Semi-Annual conference where we'll encourage you to push past the familiar and venture beyond your comfort zone. It's time to question your assumptions, challenge the status quo and make bold moves. It's time to THINK AGAIN.
